

Senator Hardie Davis, Jr.

Senate District 22

Senator Davis is husband to Evett Davis and they are the proud parents of Benjamin Joshua Davis. They have been residents of Augusta for twenty-five years. Hardie currently serves as Senior Pastor of Abundant Life Worship Center, a thriving non-denominational church located in Augusta, Georgia.

Prior to his current position as full-time pastor, he served as Lead Automation Engineer with the Monsanto Company's Biotech plant located in Augusta, Georgia.

Senator Davis is a 1992 graduate of Georgia Tech where he obtained a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering Degree and a 2002 graduate of Christian Life School of Theology where he received a Doctor of Ministry Degree.

In the fall of 2006, Hardie was elected to his first term as State Representative. He served two terms in the House. Most recently Senator Davis was elected in a special election to fill the unexpired term for Senate District 22. Senator Davis serves on the following committees: Economic Development, Ethics, Government Oversight, Insurance and Labor, State and Local Governmental Operations and Transportation.

Hardie is an actively involved member of the Augusta community where he has served on the Board of Zoning Appeals as Vice Chairman, past member of the Board of Directors of Leadership Augusta, graduate of the 2006 Leadership Georgia Class, current member of the Board of Directors for University Health Care Foundation, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and the Leadership Georgia Foundation.
